

Church Street UMC "First Friday Dance" - In the gym at Church Street UMC, downtown Knoxville on Henley Street. Your $7 admission includes soft drinks, snacks, door prizes, and birthday cake. Doors open at 7:15 and a line dance lesson starts soon after. The dance is 8 - 11 p.m. Volunteers are needed to staff the registration table and food counter. We need dancers to help clean up and put away tables at the end of the dance. To volunteer, see Annette during the dance.

Church Street UMC has contracted for monitored parking in the parking lots surrounding the church. Just to be sure your car is legal, please pick up a free parking pass at our sign-in table and remember to display it on the dashboard of your car during the dance lessons and also the First Friday dances. If you forget your pass, and you do get a parking ticket, you can call the church office and ask to have it excused.
